MAMMA LENA IS BACK ON THE AIR

Mamma Lena, doyenne of Sydney's Italian-language radio, is back on the air again — but with a different station.

After a brief absence this month, Mamma Lena has resumed broadcasting her familiar blend of music, news and social events among the city's Italian community.

Now on station 2KY after administrative changes at 2CH caused her programme to be dropped after many years, she is heard each evening from Monday to Thursday, between 7.15 pm and 10 pm.

Mamma Lena told the Westgate Weekly last week that she has retained the programme in its original form.

Her standard "Arrivedere! Roma" format, now 14 years old, is heard each Monday evening, with its traditional music reminiscent of the old country.

Tuesday is for the younger set, with songs from the Italian hit parade and other pop music.

Carousel is the name of Wednesday's programme with a round-about of everything on the music scene.

A new innovation is featured on Thursday, "Good Night from the Continent". Here Mamma Lena takes listeners on a musical tour of Europe, catering for many of Sydney's ethnic groups in their own language.
