Bankstown, NSW 2200.

Dear Mr and Mrs Gustin,

Thank you very much for sparing your time to talk to my Research Assistant on the telephone today.

As she explained, I have been doing research for a number of years now on the different non-English-language presses in Australia including, of course, the Italian press. One of the problems I have encountered is trying to determine the year when Il Gazzettino became Settegiorni, and I am delighted that you will be able to help me with this.

If you could, as you kindly offered, send me photocopies of the pages of your book which refer to this publication, I would be very grateful indeed. My address is:

Thank you again for all your help, and I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely

Dr George Kanarakis

Dear Mr and Mrs Gustin,

The photocopies of parts of your book which you made for me arrived safely, and I would like to thank you most sincerely for sending them to me.

Thank you also for going to so much trouble to make the photocopies and for giving your time to talk to me on the telephone.

Your help with my research is deeply appreciated.

With warm regards,

Dr George Kanarakis
