Joseph has been playing the accordion since the age of six. He has appeared on various television shows throughout the country, including Channel 10s POT OF GOLD GRAND FINAL where he won the Roxy Award for the best instrumentalist and also recently YOUNG TALENT TIME and QUEST 78 where he reached the viewers grand final. In February this year he won the talent quest of WESTFIELD JUNIOR STATE GRAND FINAL, and in 1978 he won an overseas trip, during which time he performed in Rome, Paris, New York and Los Angeles.

Joseph continues to study accordion and piano and recently singing studies as well. Since January this year he has been working on his debut album which has been released nationally

The album was arranged and produced by Anthony Vadala., and it was recorded at Kanangra Studios of Parramatta.

Joseph asked Bernard King to hear the material on the album and he was so pleased with it that he put his signature on the album cover, and he highly recommends it for all ages.

Joseph will be appearing throughout all the shoppingcentres to promote his album and his show will be called the JOSEPH FIMMANO SHOW. He will be playing a few numbers from his album, also singing and also two Sandra Fleton dancers will take part in the show.
