ALDO GARDELLA

Born in Borgo Taro, he learned to play the Accordion when he was only twelve years old. His teacher was his brother Luigi who was a famous accordionist. In Borgo Taro, Mr. Brugnoli had his own orchestra and played in many theatres and public events.

John Brugnoli was the first to use the Piano-Accordion which was manufactured especially for him. He played in Paris in the famous nightclub Petit Jardin and many others.

He then moved to New York and played in many night clubs. He composed many Italian songs and dances which appear in Colonial LP's.

Today, Mr. Brugnoli conducts and plays the famous Valtaro Musette Orchestra.
