

JAN MARSH

Vic

Education: Attended Monash University (Economics).

Paid Employment: 1970 joined A.C.T.U. as research officer on matters relating to the economy and wage fixation. Since 1977 a growing proportion of time has been spent on formulating the A.C.T.U.'s women's policy, with particular relation to the implementation of the Working Women's Charter. Within this charter, the achievement of equal pay, maternity leave and adequate child care facilities are areas which currently have priority. Member of the National Labour Consultative Committee Sub-Committee on Women and the National Council of Women (Victoria) Committee on Women in Employment.