

QUENTIN BRYCE

Qld

B.A. (Political Science) and LL.B; Barrister-at-Law, Lecturer in administrative and criminal law at University of Queensland; currently enrolled as LL.M. student and researching the child and law in Queensland; has published and presented papers on rights of the child, emotional needs of young children and care of sick children; National President, Association for the Welfare of Children in Hospital, Queensland; member, sub-committee on co-ordination of Pediatric Services, Queensland Pediatric Advisory Committee; member, sub-committee revising legislation in Queensland for handicapped children, Queensland Special Education Department; member, Women Lawyers' Association, Federation of University Women, Vice-President Queensland Council for Civil Liberties, 1978 International Visitor to U.S. under auspices of U.S. State Department, member Women's Electoral Lobby.

Married, five children. Age - 35.