Dear Mrs Gustin, Lena

I am writing to thank you for your contribution to the first National Women's Advisory Council. I am fully aware of the demands your involvement has placed on you, and I am most grateful that you were able to participate in the important work which the Council has done.

I believe we can be proud of the success of the first Council in its very difficult task of establishing its credibility with women, with the community, and with Government. Your contribution to the many achievements of the Council should be a source of personal satisfaction for you.

I wish you the best of health and happiness in the future and trust that you will continue to take an interest in the progress of the Council. It has been a pleasure working with you.

Yours sincerely,

Beryl
