Dee Boss-Walker	Would Support Funding. Initiative in area previously neglected. Good publicity.
Quentin Bryce	Would support Beryl Beaurepaire's view.
Jan Marsh	Would Support funding. There has been a lot of work done relating to women in the workforce but little in this area. Would agree as long as there is not a lot of similar research.
Connie Bush	Would Support Funding.
Wendy McCarthy	Would Support Funding. Would like group to include 'displaced homemaker', i.e. those women who have centred their lives around their children and the home, and suddenly find themselves no longer in this role (divorced, widowed, grown-up children). The group should be asked to specify to what extent there is existing research of the type they propose.
Margaret Rosenthal	Would Support Funding.
Judith Roberts	Would Support Funding. To her knowledge this area has not been researched.
